OCTOBER 2024 EDITION

Twilight and Light Painting

Please plan to join us at the Peters Township Library on October 9th at 6:30 pm for a presentation on Twilight and Light Painting with Michael Haritan. Haritan is a professional commercial photographer with a Certified and Craftsman Rating with the Professional Photographers of America. This Pittsburgh-based and a 32-year resident of Peters Township is an award-winning photographer specializing in architectural, commercial, real estate, executive portraiture, healthcare and industrial photography. He is the recipient of numerous local, national and international awards for his outstanding photography, including the 1987 first place award for his photo of a downtown Pittsburgh construction project, and displayed at the National Building Museum in Washington, D.C. Complimenting his 40-year career as a photographer, he has continuously taught photography to students and enthusiasts alike at the secondary, college, and adult-education levels. Haritan earned an Assoc. of Science Degree in Homeland Security in 2013 and provides photography for the PA Urban Search & Rescue Strike Team 1 and the Counterterrorism Task Force - Region 13. Last December he became a best-selling author of his newly released book: Chernobyl: Aftermath of the World's Greatest Nuclear Disaster.

Haritan's Chernobyl photo exhibit currently on display at the Bethel Park Community Library where he will give a 45 minute presentation and book signing on Wednesday, Oct. 2, at 6:30 p.m.

 : What are you thankful for? With November and
 : Thanksgiving right around the corner, think
 : about something you are thankful for. It could
 : be big, it could be small. For the sake of this : newsletter, I will choose coffee. Because there
 : are some mornings, I just can't get started
 : without it! Submit your photo to David Tauch at
